Venue: 25/2 and 23/3, Ballygunge Circular Road, Kolkata, West Bengal - 700019

YUVA SAMVAD - INDIA @2047, organized by the NSS Unit of Baba Saheb Ambedkar Education University, was a momentous event that brought together enthusiastic youth from various educational institutions. NSS volunteers from Kamala Devi Sohanraj Singhvi Jain College of Education actively participated in the Elocution Competition held during the event which was centered around the theme "Panch Pran" was aligned with the visionary concept put forth by the Prime Minister in the age of Amritkaal.

Dignitaries Mr. Vinay Kumar (Regional Director NSS, WB), Dr. Biswajit Bala (NSS coordinator BSAEU), Dr. Abantika Mondal (NSS Programme officer BSAEU) and Prof. (Dr.) Soma Bandyopadhyay (Vice Chancellor BSAEU) graced the occasion, shared their views on all the five pledges.

Two NSS volunteers Chanchal Bharti and Anjali Prasad passionately presented their perceptive on distinctive yet interconnected themes – "Taking Pride in India's Heritage and legacy" and "Sense of Duty Among Citizen" respectively. One highlighted the rich culture from Harappa civilization, Vedic period to the art, architecture, literature, music, festivals, food and our principles of Vasudeva kutumbakam and sarve bhavantu sukhinav, sarve santu nirmayah while second eloquently articulated the pivotal role of duty in building a responsible citizen and urged fellow audience to contribute in society towards the nation's progress and wellbeing.

In a remarkable achievement, NSS volunteer Anjali Prasad secured the 2nd position in the competition and second participants received a certificate of participation. The prize distribution ceremony was a moment of celebration, with the winner being acknowledged for their outstanding performance.
