Date:- 20th January 202

Time: 3.30 pm

Venue:-Calcutta Orphanage

Balaram Ghosh Street

KOLKATA – 700 004

Objectives:

- 1. The objective of this event was to distribute blankets to the residents of Calcutta Orphanage, providing them with warmth and comfort during the winter season as part of our NSS activities.
- 2. To donate money for the purpose of buying academic books for the children studying in classes 7-12.

Introduction:

The National Service Scheme (NSS) unit of Kamala Devi Sohanraj Singhvi Jain College of Education organized a blanket distribution and donation of money at Calcutta Orphanage on 20th January 2025. The events were aimed at providing support to the underprivileged children and staff of the orphanage.

Event Details:

The event commenced at 4 p.m. with the arrival of our 15 members of NSS Team with our four respected Professor at the orphanage. We were welcomed by the authorities of the orphanage, who expressed their gratitude for our initiative. Our team then proceeded to distribute the blankets, ensuring that each child and staff member received one.

Outcome:

The blanket distribution event was a huge success, with 110 blankets being distributed to the residents of the orphanage. The event brought smiles to the faces of the children and staff, and we received appreciation from the orphanage authorities for our efforts.

The NSS team also donated an amount of 4000 rs to the authorities of the Orphanage for the purpose of buying academic books for the students of the orphanage.

Conclusion:

The blanket distribution and donation of money at Calcutta Orphanage was a rewarding experience for our NSS team. We are grateful for the opportunity to make a positive impact on the lives of the orphanage residents. We look forward to organizing more such events in the future.

Based on our experience, we recommend that similar events be organized in the future to support the underprivileged sections of society.
